

Director of Enforcement
(Salary Commensurate with Experience and Qualifications)

The Arizona Corporation Commission - Securities Division is seeking an attorney with at least 5 years of experience in litigation to manage its Enforcement Section. The Section consists of 20 attorneys, accountants, investigators and legal assistants. It is charged with investigating and litigating cases involving violations of the Arizona Securities Act and the Arizona Investment Management Act. Cases will be before administrative law judges and in state and Federal courts. The successful candidate will have substantial experience in supervising personnel involved in legal proceedings, many of which are highly charged and contentious matters. The successful candidate will also make policy recommendations to the Director of Securities and to the Commission involving management of the Division and cases. A background in securities laws or financial fraud cases is highly desirable but not mandatory. Applicants must be in good standing with the State Bar of Arizona. This position is not covered by the State Merit System. The State of AZ/AA/EOE/ADA Reasonable Accommodation Employer.

Anticipated hiring range dependent upon qualifications

Excellent comprehensive benefits, including a top-ranked retirement plan, low-cost health coverage, supplemental policies such as vision and short-term disability, and generous paid leave programs. Encouragement for career and personal development; multiple training and education opportunities and resources Interesting, challenging work in a non-corporate environment with the chance to make a real difference in our state

Submit your resume and a writing sample at <https://azstatejobs.azdoa.gov/>, job id 17210.